

Agility Encouragement award was donated by Bonnie Weeks for competition throughout the year at agility trials.

Only Queensland resident member's dogs are eligible.

The award is presented to the dog gaining the highest average results over a maximum of five, minimum of 3 trials. Scores need not be qualifying scores.

Only Agility trials held between 1 January and 1 December are included in this award.

The Agility Encouragement Award is a perpetual trophy and as such is presented at the AGM each year and held by the winner until required for the following AGM.

To be eligible for the Agility Encouragement Award, results must be submitted in writing by the dogs owner and addressed to the club, marked "Attention Trophy Steward" no later than the 8th of January.

Results information should include: name of dog, name of owner, name of breeder, officiating Obedience trials, names of Judges, and points awarded at each trial.
